

iMovie '09

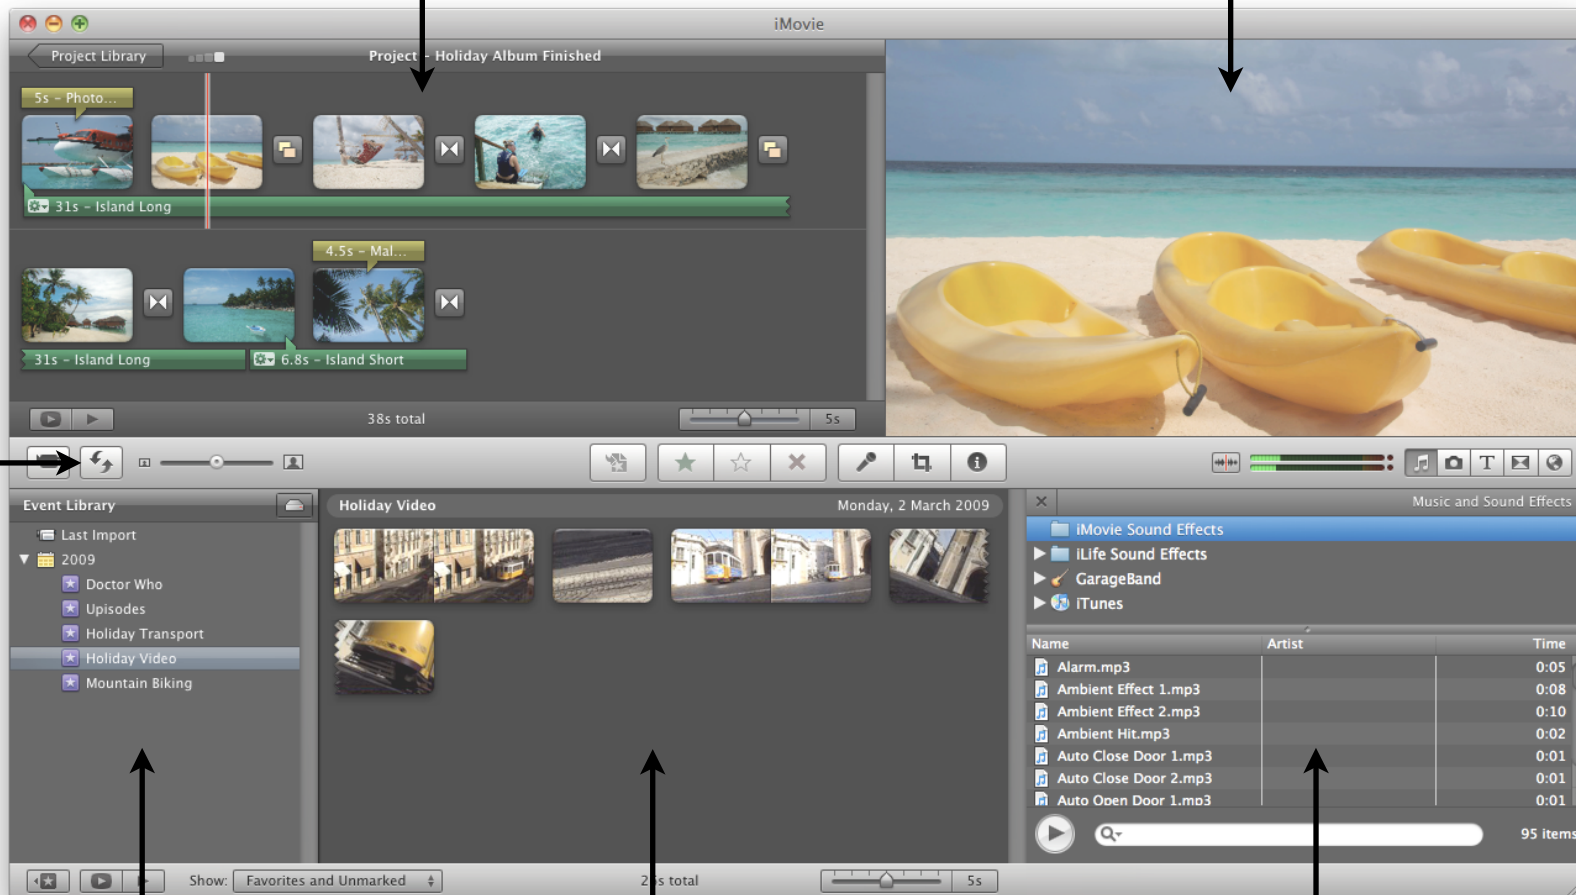

Guide To The Interface

iMovie '09: The Main Window

Project Library / Timeline View

Viewer

iMovie Toolbar

Event List

Source Video

Media Browser / Titles /
Transitions / Animated Maps

iMovie '09: The Toolbar

Open Camera Import Window

Allows you to import footage from a DV, SD or Hard Drive camcorder.

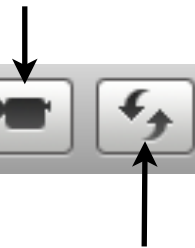

Thumbnail Size

Drag to increase / decrease the size of the video thumbnails.

Swap Projects and Events

Allows you swap the location of the Project and Events library in the main window.

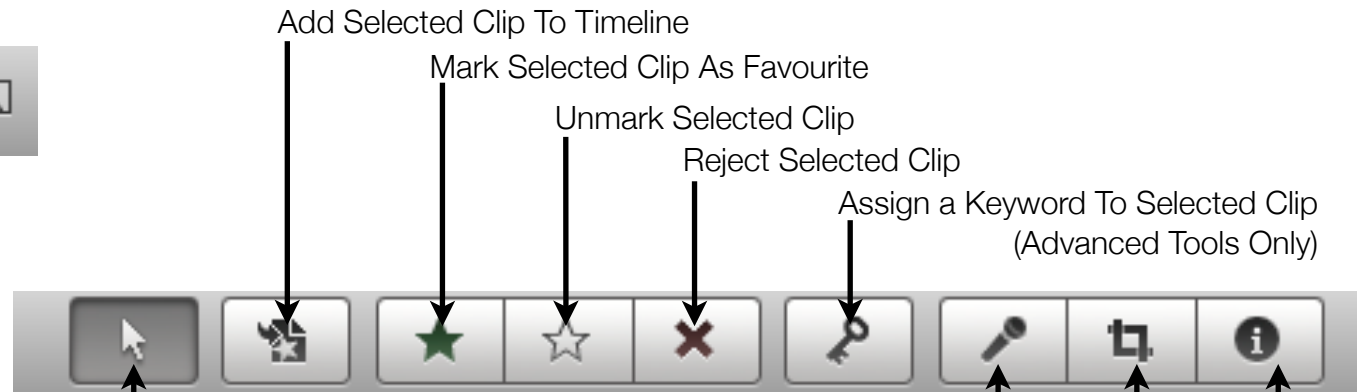

Add Selected Clip To Timeline

Mark Selected Clip As Favourite

Unmark Selected Clip

Reject Selected Clip

Assign a Keyword To Selected Clip (Advanced Tools Only)

Arrow Tool (Advanced Tools Only)

Record Voiceover

Crop Selected Clip

Load Inspector For Selected Clip

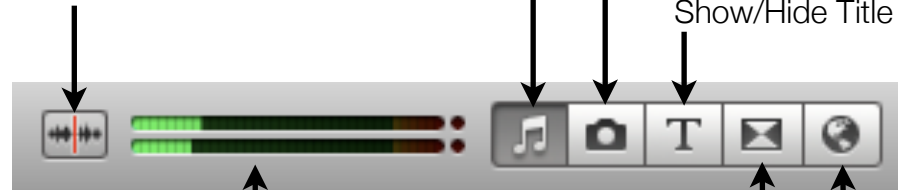

Turn Audio Skimming On and Off

Show/Hide Music and Sound Effects Browser

Show/Hide Photo Browser

Show/Hide Title Browser

Volume Level For Video At Playhead

Show/Hide Map and Background Browser

Show/Hide Transitions Browser

iMovie '09: Project Library View

Edit Project

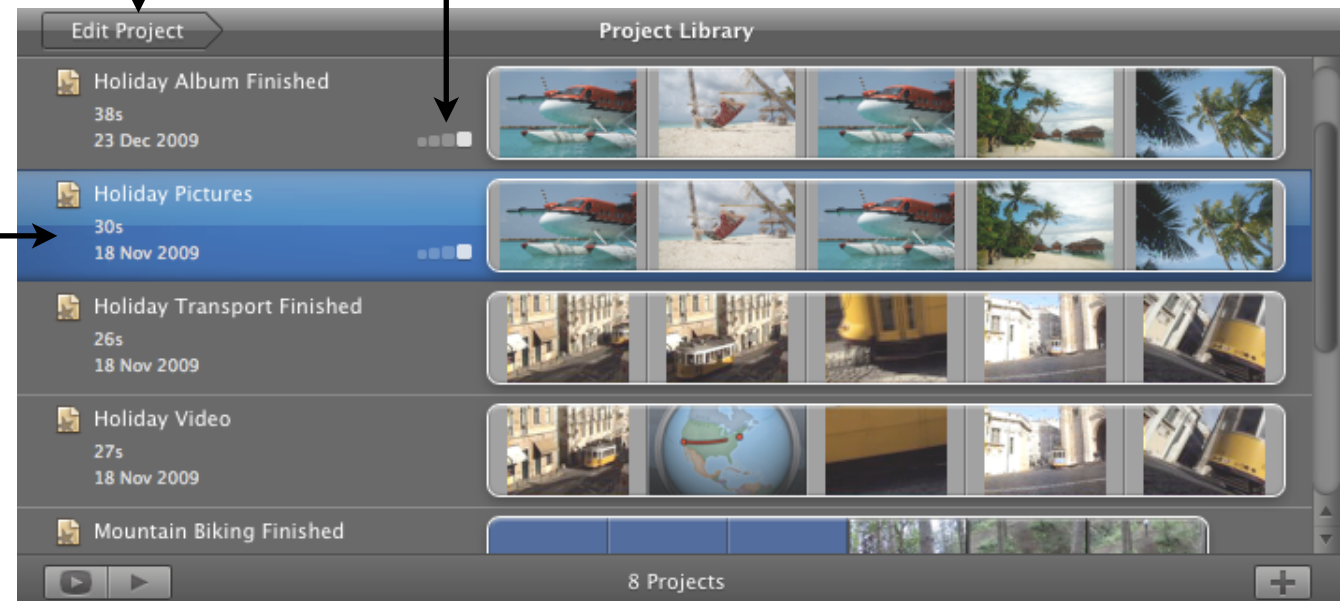

Opens the currently selected project in the timeline view.

Video Size Export Indicator

Displays which video size the project has been exported in. The sizes range from tiny to large.

Project Details

For each project the name, current duration, date of creation and a preview of the used clips are displayed.

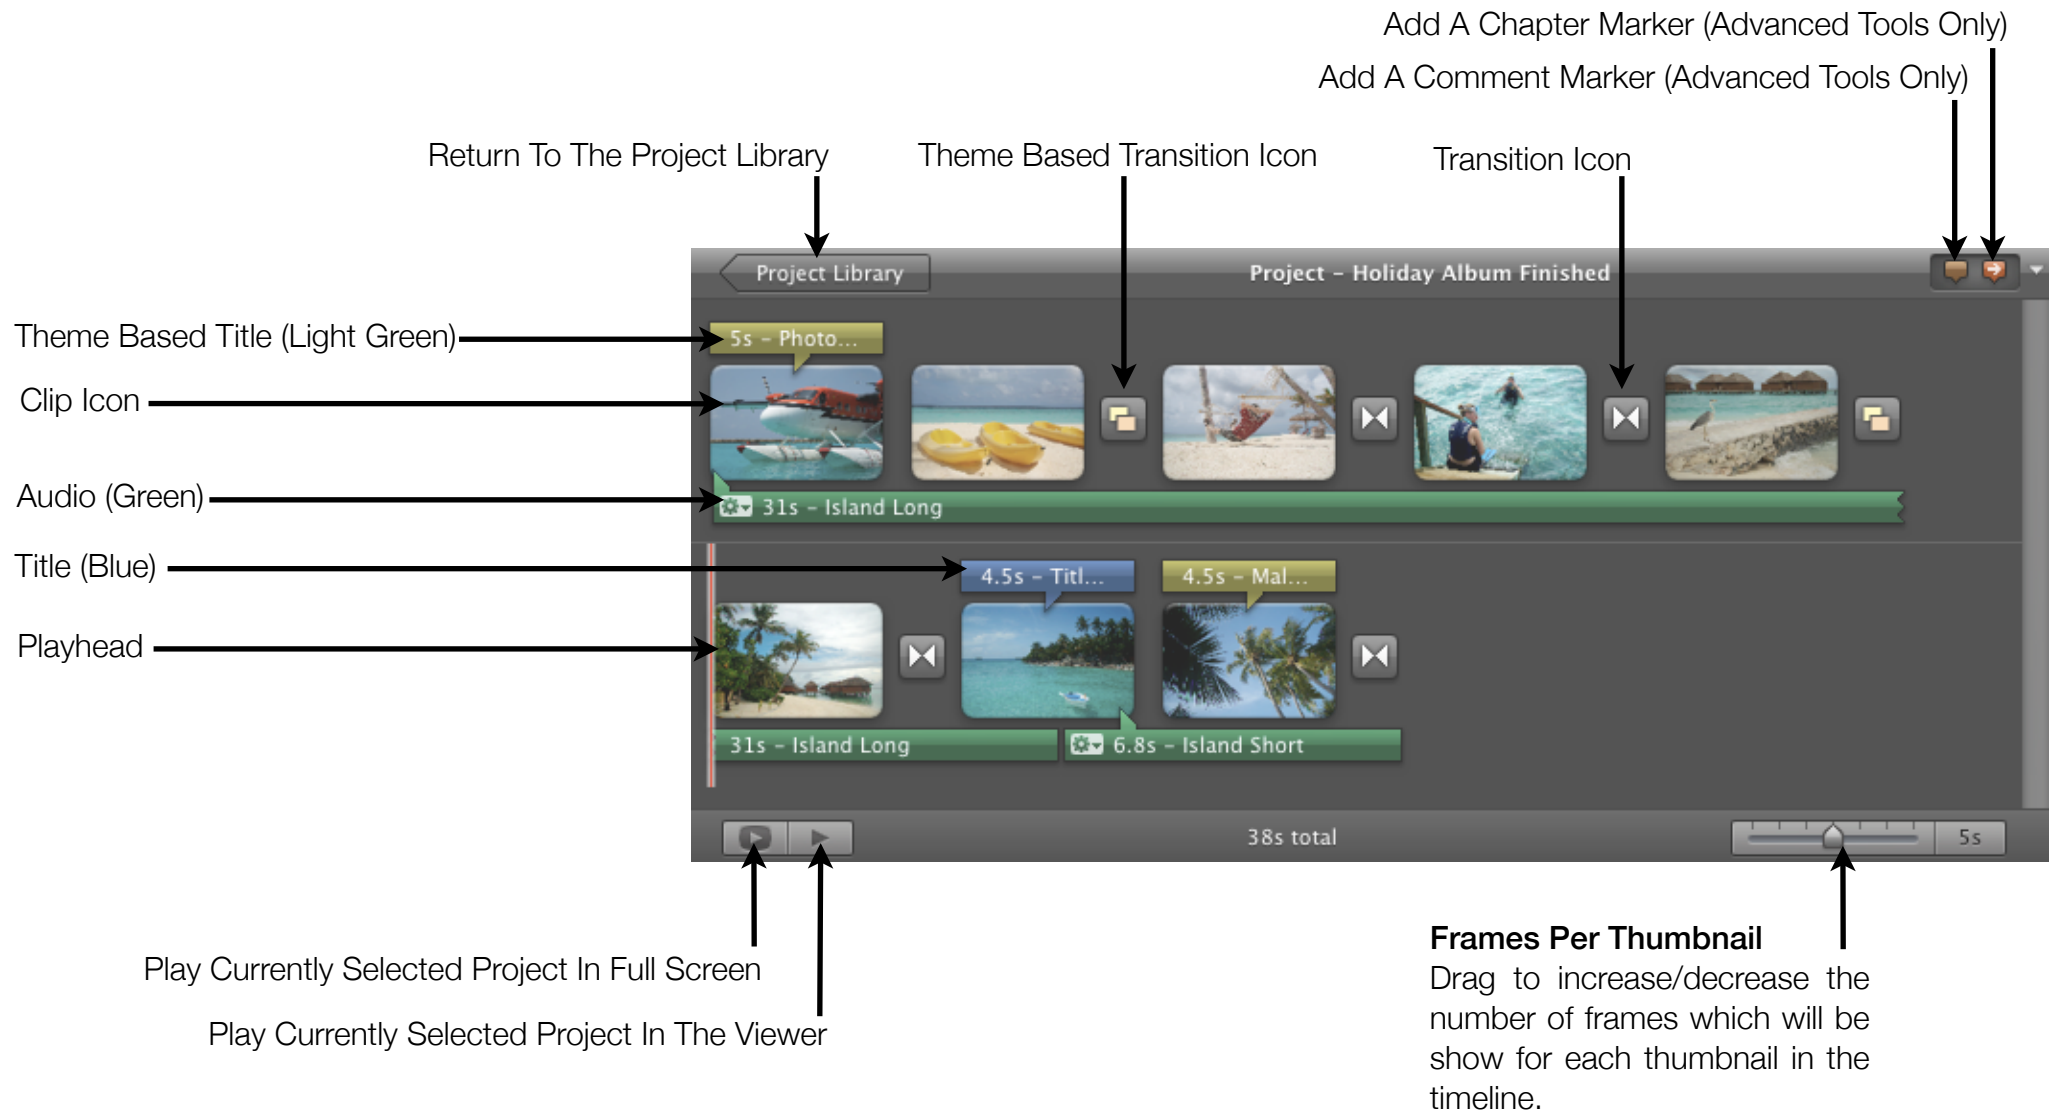

Play Currently Selected Project In Full Screen

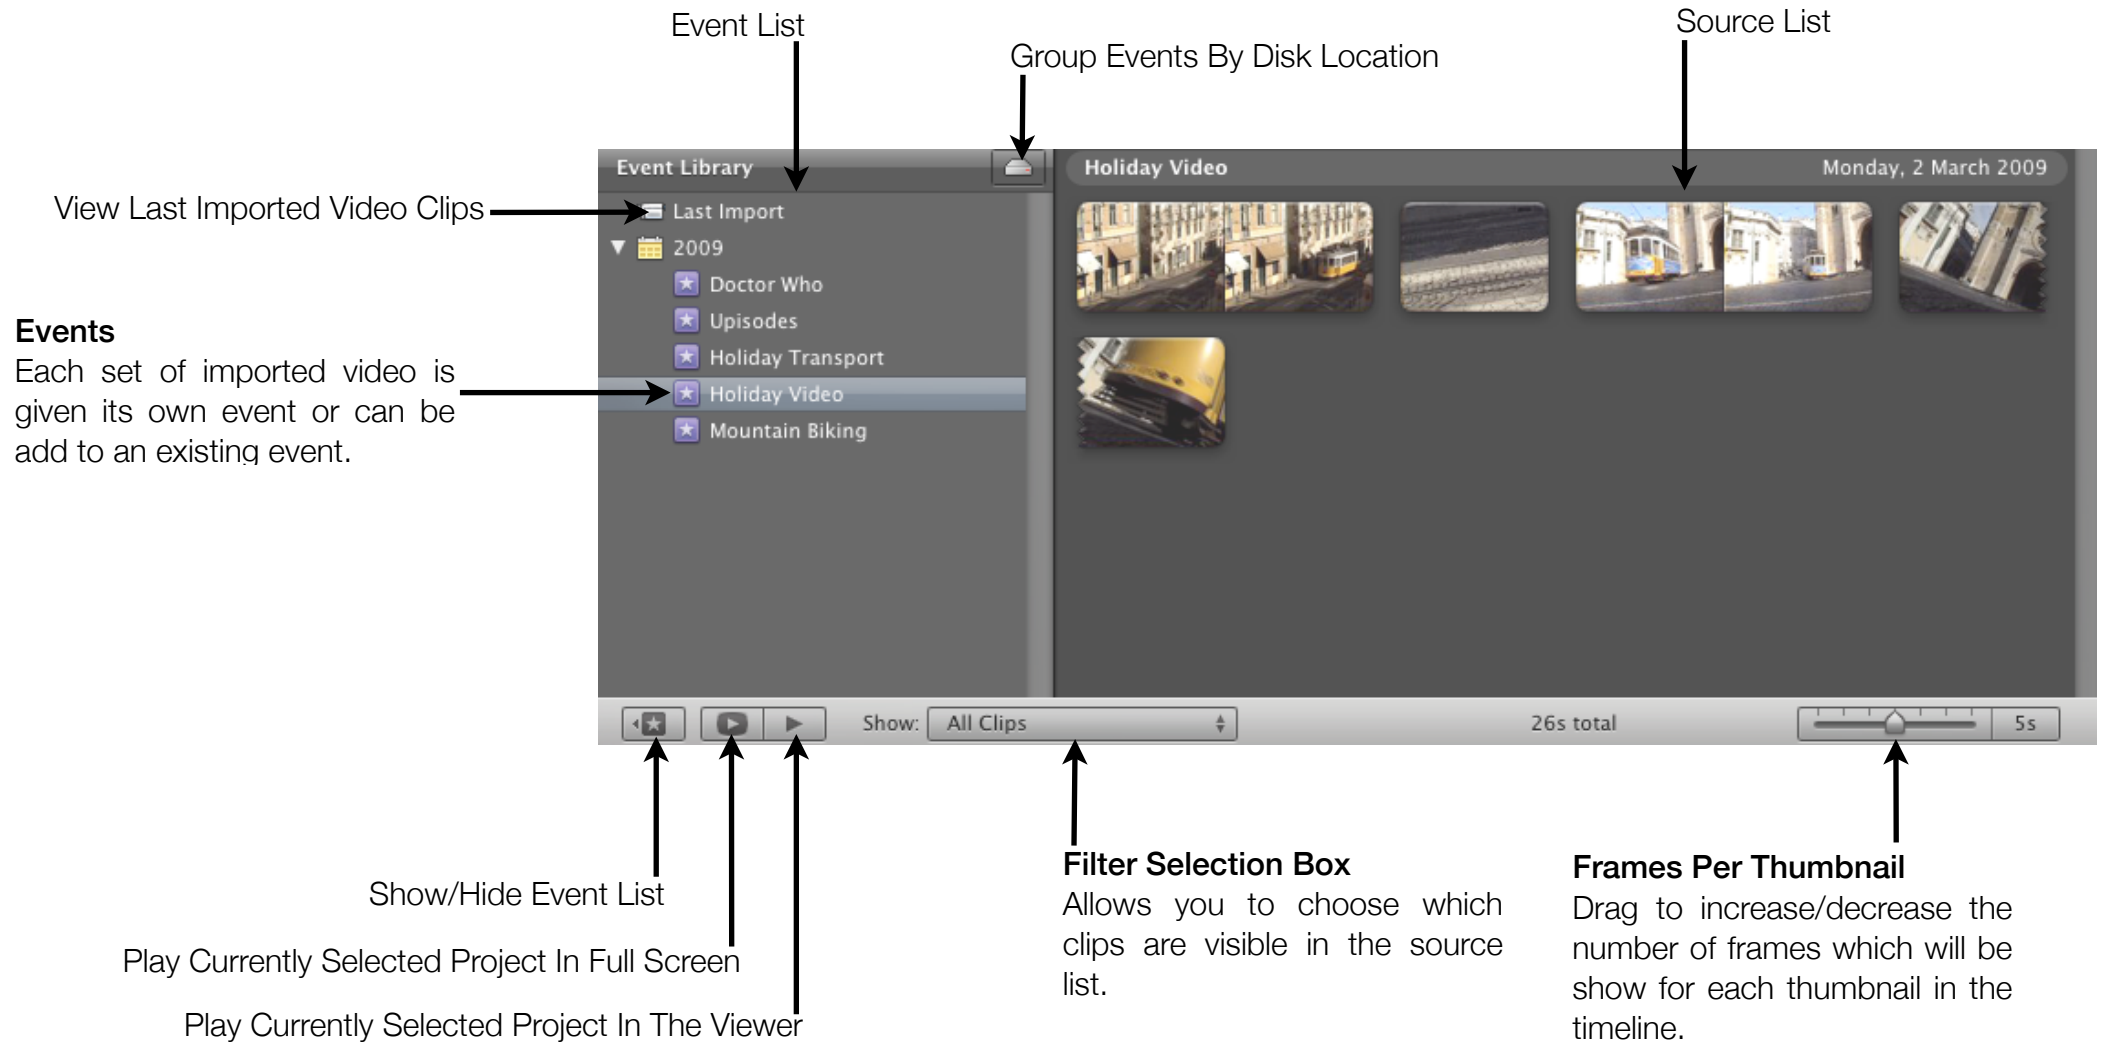

Play Currently Selected Project In The Viewer

Create New Project

iMovie '09: Timeline View

iMovie '09: Event Library

iMovie '09: Music and Sound Effects Browser

Source List

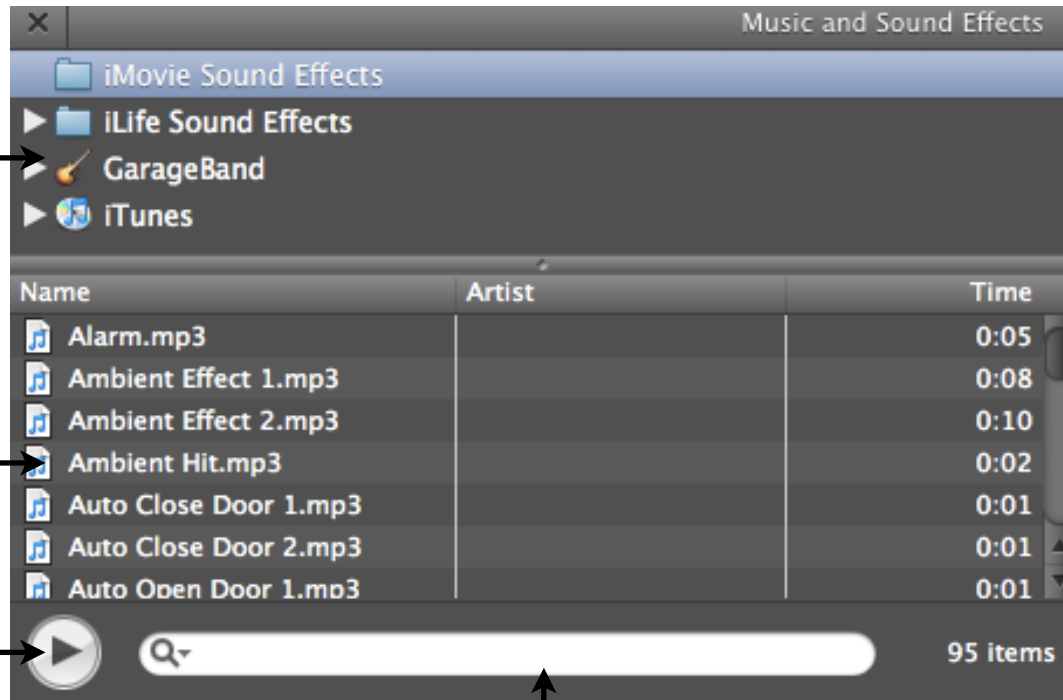

Select the folder that contains the media you want to use in your project. iMovie provides you with a number of sound effects. You can also access your iTunes library and any other Garageband files you have created.

You can also drag in a folder from Finder to act as a source.

Media List

Displays the media which is available in your selected source.

Preview Button

Search Box

iMovie '09: Photo Browser

Source List

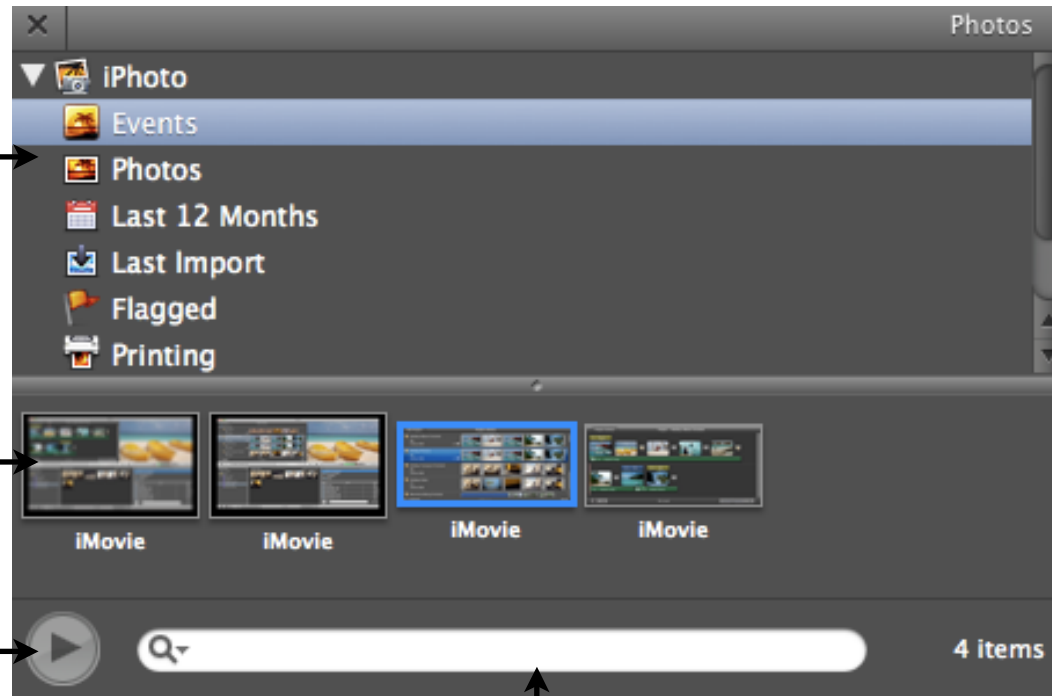

Select the folder that contains the media you want to use in your project. You can access your iPhoto and Photo Booth libraries.

You can also drag in a folder from Finder to act as a source.

Media List

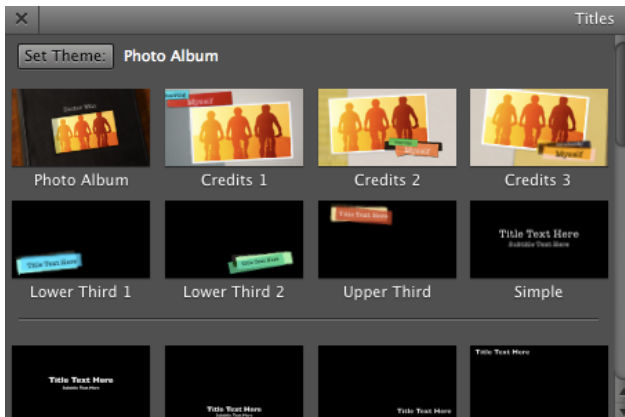

Displays the media which is available in your selected source.

Preview Button

Search Box

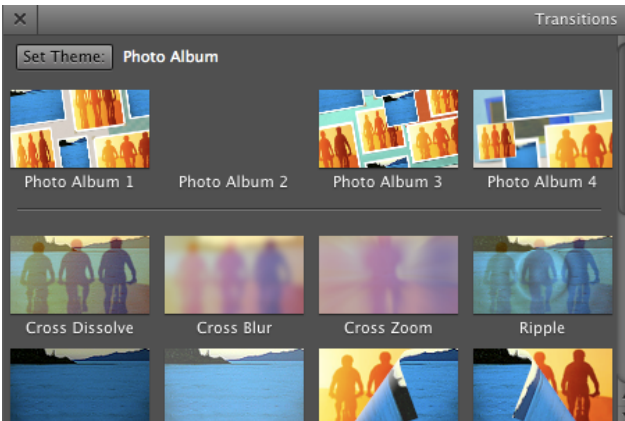

iMovie '09: Additional Browsers

Title Browser

This browser allows you to preview the titles which are available for you to use in your projects.

You can also choose a theme to use for your project, depending on the theme you choose additional titles will become available.

Transitions Browser

This browser allows you to preview the transitions which are available for you to use in your projects.

You can also choose a theme to use for your project, depending on the theme you choose additional transitions will become available.

Maps and Backgrounds Browser

This browser allows you to preview the maps and backgrounds which are available for you to use in your projects.

iMovie '09: Voiceover Dialog Box

Recording Source Menu

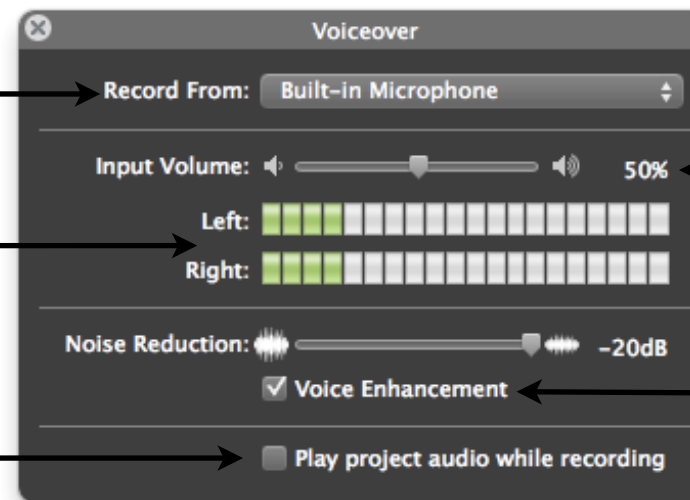

Allows you to select the recording source, this can be either the built-in microphone or an external source.

Noise Reduction

Drag the slider to increase/decrease the background noise during recording.

Project Playback Check Box

Allows you to play the project audio while recording.

Input Volume

Drag the slider to increase/decrease the recording volume for the selected recording source.

Voice Enhancement Check Box

Allows you to make your voice sound smoother during recording.

iMovie '09: Inspector Dialog Box

Adjust Clip Duration

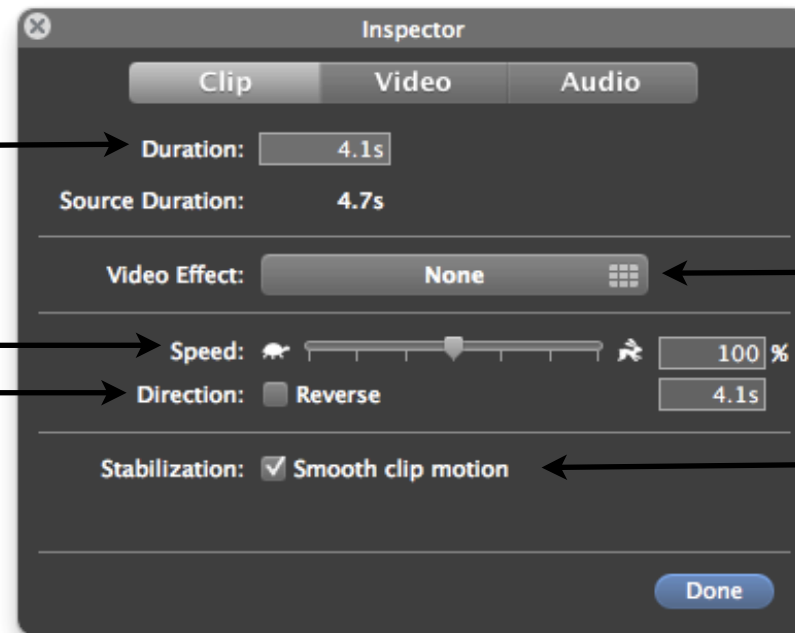

Allows you to change the duration of the currently selected clip.

Change Speed

Drag the slider to increase/decrease the speed of the currently selected clip.

Change Direction

Allows you to change direction of the currently selected clip.

Video Effects Menu

Allows you to add a special effects to the currently selected clip. Examples are adding a black and white filter or flipping the selected clip.

Stabilization

Analyses the selected video clip for movement and allows you reduce the camera shake within the clip.

iMovie '09: Inspector Dialog Box

Shadow and Highlight Level

Drag the slider inwards in order to brighten the bright areas and darken the dark areas of the currently selected clip.

Exposure Level

Drag the slider to make changes to the light and dark areas within the currently selected clip.

Contrast Level

Drag the slider to create darker blacks and brighter whites.

Colour Gain Levels (Advanced Tools Only)

Drag the slider to increase/decrease the red, green and blue gain levels within the currently selected clip.

Brightness Level

Drag the slider to make the entire image lighter or darker.

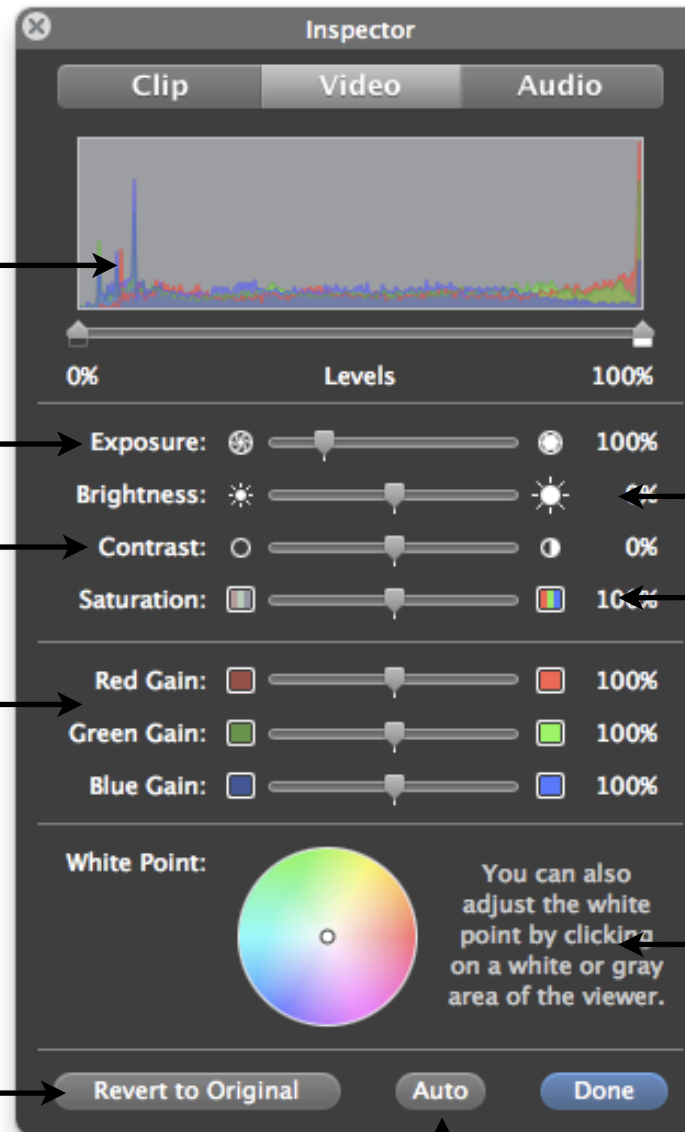

Saturation Level

Drag the slider to increase/decrease the intensity of the colours.

White Point Level

Allows you to eliminate or adjust the colour cast within the currently selected clip. The colour cast is created by different kinds of light i.e. fluorescent lighting.

Revert Levels To Default

Set Levels Automatically

iMovie '09: Inspector Dialog Box

Volume Level

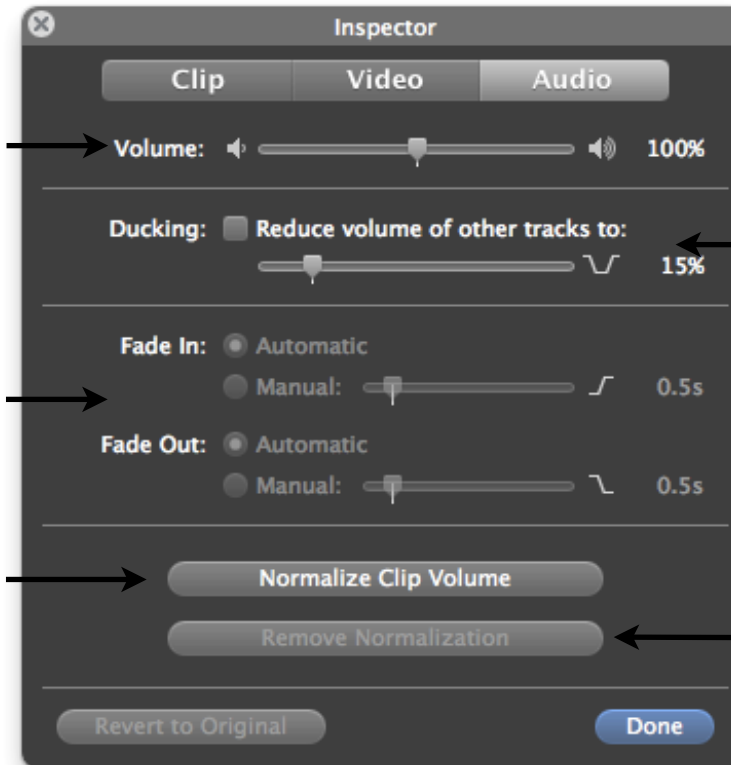

Drag the slider to increase/decrease the volume for the currently selected clip.

Fade In / Fade Out Levels

Allows you to either allow iMovie to set the fade in and out levels for the currently selected clip. Alternatively you can use the sliders to set the fade in and out points manually.

Normalization Button

Allows you to set the same sound level across a clip. It is also possible to select multiple clips and perform normalization across all of them.

Ducking Level

Drag the slider to increase/decrease the reduction in volume for other audio tracks that play at the same time as the currently selected tracks.

Remove Normalization Button

Allows you to remove all normalization from the currently selected clips.

iMovie '11

Guide To The Interface

V1.2 06/10/13 dalemmanning.me.uk